

A SPECIAL INVITATION FOR YOU

We're marching on January 20, 2018 and we're hoping you will join us!

On the anniversary weekend of the historic worldwide 2017 Women's March, we're inviting everyone back to Roanoke. Dedicated to the voices of Virginia women, the Roanoke Women's March gathers as a community of passionate women who deeply value equality, justice, and human rights and who are ready to impact the 2018 elections.

IF YOU CAN'T HEAR US, HEAR OUR VOTE!

Women's March on Roanoke, standing together with our sister grassroots groups here in the Roanoke Valley, celebrates our shared resistance as we renew our commitment to build a stronger, a more unified, a more positive, Virginia. Please consider joining us at the event to amplify our shared concerns and efforts to dismantle systems of oppression.

PLEASE JOIN US AS AN EXHIBITING PARTNER!

The Roanoke Women's March is a women-led movement providing intersectional perspectives on issues impacting the Roanoke Valley and issues that especially impact women and their families. We will raise our voices to create solutions for Virginia communities. We are a platform for grassroots activists and organizers to engage in their local communities to dismantle systems of oppression. We recognize that there is no true peace, freedom, or inclusion without equality for all. Our march will represent voices of resistance aligned with our Unity Principles -- ending violence and promoting civil rights, reproductive rights, LGBTQIA rights, workers' rights, disability rights, immigrant rights, indigenous people's rights and environmental justice.
